

Rides to Remember

IN SOMERSET

Full throttle fun!

Winding roads, tight corners, long stretches, knee scrapers, and spectacular views. Our roads are built for motorcycles. Twist the throttle and drop a knee, because you're always in for an epic ride in Somerset.

Esk - Lake Somerset - Toogoolawah Circuit (110km)

- Your ride to remember starts in Esk.
- Head north as you accelerate out of Esk and turn right onto the Esk Kilcoy Road towards Lake Somerset.
- Take a break and stretch your legs at the Somerset Dam General Store and check out the Somerset Dam Wall.
- Cruise along Esk Kilcoy Road and turn right to enjoy Lake Somerset from The Spit Day Use Area or continue on to visit Kirkleagh day use area, near Hazeldean.
- Turn left onto Gregors Creek Rd and drop your knee on some serious corners while enjoying the farmland scenery.
- Turn left onto Brisbane Valley Highway toward Toogoolawah and feel the wind in your face.
- Cruise along and turn right into Dingyarra Street (opposite the BP Service Station) which joins Fulham Street and then becomes Biarra Road.
- Glide over Cressbrook Creek at Rosentreter's Crossing before cruising past the cattle yards at the intersection of the Esk Crows Nest Road.
- Turn left, head back towards Esk and smile to yourself as you complete the circuit.

Wivenhoe Dam Circuit (110km)

- Your adventure starts in Fernvale. Why not fuel up with an award-winning pie at the Old Fernvale Bakery?
- Fly out of Fernvale and see spectacular scenes of the Brisbane River and Wivenhoe Dam.
- Cruise into Esk, some 40km from Fernvale and enjoy a break at one of the country cafes.
- As you leave Esk, take a right onto Esk-Kilcoy Road towards Lake Somerset.
- Drop a knee as you turn right on Wivenhoe-Somerset Road.
- Discover where Lakes Somerset and Wivenhoe meet as you cross the Stanley River.
- Circle back around to the eastern side of Wivenhoe Dam.
- Turn left onto Northbrook Parkway and discover why they call it Mount Glorious.
- Head back to Wivenhoe-Somerset Road and cruise South back towards Fernvale.
