
Lake Somerset is brimming with breathtaking scenery and an abundance of adventures to unlock, so it makes perfect sense to base yourself in the charming village of Somerset Dam to experience the region.

Somerset Stays
There's no better way to start your outdoor adventure than to set up camp at a spot along Lake Somerset.Choose from cosy cabins along the waterfront, self-contained accommdation options at NRMA Lake Somerset Holiday Park, or find the perfect place to pitch a tent at Somerset Park Campground.

Stock up for your stay
Pop into the Somerset Dam General Store and stock up on tasty treats and all your holiday needs.

Unbeatable Views
Lake Somerset also has some of the best views in the region. Head up to Shiels Lookout, along Esk Kilcoy Road and take in some of the most breathtaking views of Somerset.

Activities and water sports galore
The most difficult decision you'll have to make on your visit to Somerset Dam is deciding which activity to start with first! When it comes to making the most of being on the water, you really are spoiled for choice. Make a splash and choose from fishing, water skiing, wake boarding, jet skiing, tubing or swimming.

Picnic and Play
There are plenty of picturesque recreational areas with playgrounds, shelters and barbecue facilities so you can cook your catch and enjoy a picnic lunch of fresh fish and redclaw.

Celebrate in style
Somerset Dam is also the home of Coronation Hall, a bespoke refurbished events venue perfect for weddings and celebrations. Say 'I do' in a beautifully refurbished hall rich with history and country charm.